

PRAYER REQUESTS

from around the world

Thank you for uplifting Trans World Radio. As God reminds you, please pray for...

August

- 1 The Lord to guide TWR during its leadership transition
- 2 Listeners in West Africa to tune in to programming from TWR's strategic Benin facility
- 3 TWR staff contacting listeners who made decisions to follow Christ
- 4 Spanish-speaking teens to learn about following Christ through Entre Jovenes (Between Young People)
- 5 TWR missionaries Larry and Barbara Petersen, serving in Singapore
- 6 Broadcasts in Aceh, Karen S'gaw, Pulaar and Tarifit to Asia and the Middle East
- 7 Mrs. Betty Jane Freed, wife of TWR's founder, the late Dr. Paul E. Freed, in her daily activities
- 8 Potential outreach opportunities in China during the 2008 Olympics
- 9 TWR's Finance department in Cary, NC
- 10 Insight and sensitivity for MemCare by Radio program producers
- 11 Project Hannah founder Marli Spieker
- 12 Prospective missionaries to respond to vital TWR personnel needs
- 13 Wisdom for producers of HIV/AIDS programming to be sensitive to the needs of listeners
- 14 Special programs aimed for survivors of the devastating cyclone in Myanmar
- 15 TWR Board members Daniel Blakely, Ross Campbell and Wade Ficken
- 16 Missionary appointees raising support to go to the field
- 17 TWR's Escuela Biblica (Bible School) program to train Latin American pastors in solid doctrine
- 18 God to guide those without Him to listen to TWR and follow Him
- 19 Broadcasts in Braj Bhasha, Deccan, Hindi and Tamil for India
- 20 Tim Klingbeil, TWR's international director for the Americas
- 21 European teens to realize God's Word is relevant to their lives
- 22 TWR listeners who are in prison to discover spiritual freedom in Christ
- 23 Indian teenagers to hear of Christ through TWR-India rallies
- 24 Protection for workers distributing Radio Church Kits across China
- 25 Moroccan listeners to come to know Christ personally through TWR broadcasts in Sous Tachelhit
- 26 Safety for TWR workers as they travel in potentially dangerous locations
- 27 New listeners to TWR broadcasts to hear about Christ in their own languages
- 28 Continued vision and inspiration for TWR's staff and partners around the globe
- 29 Algerians to come to know Christ through Light of Life in Berber

TWR needs your prayers—today and tomorrow! The Prayer Network will keep you and your church up to date as to how you can pray intelligently and effectively for our life-changing outreach. To receive timely, strategic prayer requests via e-mail, contact Tina Sessoms, TWR's international prayer coordinator, at tsessoms@twr.org.

- 30 TWR listeners tuning in to programs in Bemba, Chokwe and Kirundi in Africa
- 31 More women to come to God through Women of Hope in Albanian and Slovak

September

- 1 Encouragement for TWR staff in various offices worldwide
- 2 Children of missionaries who are away from their parents while attending schooling abroad
- 3 TWR interns Gisele Chambers and Baiye Zebulone, serving in Austria
- 4 Strengthening of relationships with contacts for TWR's Area Director Team: Ann Chastain, Ron Harder, Tim McElhane, Ralf Stores and Gary Whitmore
- 5 Wisdom for translators who regionally adapt programming such as The Word Today
- 6 Protection for local TWR workers as they minister in the midst of regional turmoil
- 7 Increased awareness and support of TWR's ministry around the world
- 8 European ministries to continue despite challenges due to the weakening U.S. dollar
- 9 TWR missionaries Paul and Donna Cox, serving in Benin
- 10 TWR Board members Nancy Epperson, Valentine Gitoho and Joachim Loh
- 11 Women who listen to Women of Hope to be godly influencers on their families
- 12 TWR's Donor Services department in Cary, NC
- 13 TWR's broadcasts to reach listeners in remote Central Asian villages
- 14 Broadcasts in Belarusian, Croatian, Lithuanian and Ukrainian to Europe
- 15 TWR missionaries Bern and Patti Schraut, serving in Austria

- 16 Wisdom for TWR staff who provide guidance and follow-up to TWR listeners
- 17 Women in desperate circumstances to receive hope in Jesus through Women of Hope programs
- 18 Producers of the Caravan of Hope program for Central Asia
- 19 TWR missionaries Garth and Fiona Kennedy, serving in Benin
- 20 Creativity for TWR-India staff producing children's broadcasts
- 21 TWR's Information Technology department in Cary, NC
- 22 God to lead more churches to prayerfully or financially support TWR projects and missionaries
- 23 Latin American listeners to learn solid biblical doctrine from Despertar RTM (Waking Up with TWR)
- 24 Broadcasts in Baatonum, Fongbe, Malagasy and Umbundu to Africa
- 25 Producers who create TWR programs in more than 225 languages
- 26 TWR to remain steadfast in sharing Christ through mass media so that lasting fruit is produced
- 27 Angolan listeners to Women of Hope to share the hope they hear on the radio with others
- 28 Young adults in the Middle East listening to Ala's Diary on the radio and the Internet
- 29 God to provide the resources as new programming opportunities arise
- 30 TWR missionaries Phil and Debbie Binder, serving on Guam

October

- 1 Chairman of the Board of Directors Tom Lowell
- 2 TWR missionaries Mark and Debbie Blosser, serving in Swaziland
- 3 Werner Kroemer, TWR's international director for Europe, CIS & Middle East

- 4 TWR's Ministry Services department in Cary, NC
 - 5 Project Hannah's producers of Women of Hope in more than 45 languages and dialects
 - 6 Travel safety and fruitful contacts for missionaries on furlough
 - 7 Safety for workers distributing radios in Nepal and North Korea
 - 8 Broadcasts in Lak, Waray-Waray and Tibetan Amdo to Asia
 - 9 Chinese young people who visit TWR-Asia's English learning Web site to hear about Christ
 - 10 TWR missionaries Mike and Eli Sabin, serving on Guam
 - 11 Protection for believers living in potentially hostile circumstances
 - 12 Those around the world without Christ to tune in and listen to TWR programming
 - 13 Encouragement for staff in TWR's partner offices to remain steadfast
 - 14 African listeners from the Fulfulde people group to become believers after hearing TWR programming
 - 15 Encouragement for TWR missionaries serving in locations far from their families
 - 16 Safety for TWR missionaries and staff in the wake of recent world turmoil
 - 17 TWR missionaries Holly and Andrew Haas, serving in South Africa
 - 18 Underground churches to receive training and encouragement through TWR broadcasts
 - 19 Listeners in Latin American cities to tune into TWR broadcasts and turn to Christ
 - 20 Steadfastness for TWR listeners living in Central Asian countries
 - 21 TWR Board member Bert Stokes
 - 22 Middle Eastern nonreaders to know Christ through TWR's chronological Bible storying broadcasts
 - 23 Producers of The Honey That Kills, TWR-Africa's HIV/AIDS programming
 - 24 TWR's Public Relations department in Cary, NC
 - 25 Broadcasts in Gamit, Tamil and Varli to India
 - 26 Latin American teens to remain firm in their faith through Codigo Vital (Vital Code) broadcasts
 - 27 African children to know Jesus is their Savior through Witness at the Water programs
 - 28 Russian and Ukrainian children to learn about Jesus through The Little Path and The Little Stream
 - 29 TWR missionaries Joe and Rhonda Barker, serving on Bonaire
 - 30 Guidance for producers of TWR-Europe's children's programming
 - 31 Women of Hope to continue encouraging women worldwide
- ## November
- 1 God to continue to use TWR to proclaim His unchanging message in this changing world
 - 2 Listeners living in war-torn countries of Africa to lean on the Prince of Peace
 - 3 Those involved in TWR's OneStory project, which includes narrative storytelling for nonreaders
 - 4 Listeners across the globe to experience true freedom in Christ
 - 5 TWR Board members Avery Willis and Willie Yang
 - 6 Broadcasts in Baniwa, Nivacle, Quichua and Spanish to Latin America
 - 7 TWR's Human Resources department in Cary, NC
 - 8 Spiritual and physical healing for listeners devastated by war
 - 9 Arabic listeners to worship God through TWR's music broadcast Praise of My Lips

To assist your congregation in devising an outreach or missions plan, TWR's nationwide team of Area Directors for Ministry Partnership are trained to help. They're also available to speak at your church about TWR's ministry.

Ann Chastain

(GA, IL, IN, KY, southwest MI, MN, southern NC, SC, WI)
Phone: 404-434-7976
achastain@twr.org

Ron Harder

(AZ, CA, CO, NV, NM, OR, WA)
Phone: 916-786-9408
rharder@twr.org

Tim McElhaney

(CT, MA, MI, NY, OH, PA, WV)
Phone: 330-637-2936
tmcelhan@twr.org

Ralf Stores

(AR, MD, northern NC, ND, NJ, TX, OK, VA)
Phone: 919-460-3700
rstores@twr.org

Gary Whitmore

(AL, FL, IA, KS, LA, MO, MS, NE, TN)
Phone: 863-859-2955
gwhitmor@twr.org

- 10 TWR missionaries Ted and Dawn Siemens, serving in the Netherlands
- 11 Listeners to remain firm in their faith despite persecution and pressure to deny Christ
- 12 Women listeners of Cosas Nosotras, a Spanish program produced in the Dominican Republic
- 13 The Lord to open up new avenues of ministry in the Middle East
- 14 TWR's programs to encourage listeners to positively influence friends and family
- 15 Sebastian Chan, TWR's International Director for Asia
- 16 Godly wisdom for TWR producers creating Oasis of Hope broadcasts
- 17 TWR programming to touch the hearts of listeners across the globe
- 18 TWR missionaries Bob and Beth Chick, serving in Austria
- 19 Broadcasts in Finnish, Norwegian and Swedish to Europe
- 20 Latin American church leaders to be better equipped for ministry by listening to TWR programming
- 21 God to bless TWR Canada's outreach
- 22 West African listeners to see the relevance of God and the Bible in their daily lives
- 23 Indian teenagers to discover Christ is the one true God
- 24 TWR staff who follow-up with people in sensitive locations who respond to TWR programming
- 25 TWR's broadcasts from Benin to touch the hearts of listeners
- 26 Listeners struggling with despair to turn to Christ in their time of need
- 27 Thankfulness for what God is doing in the hearts of those preparing and listening to TWR broadcasts
- 28 TWR missionaries Paul and Kathy Gregowske, serving in Cambodia
- 29 Spanish-speaking children to learn about Jesus through Sabio y Prudente (Wise and Prudent) programs
- 30 Arabic listeners to receive spiritual direction through Word of Truth broadcasts