Serving with TWR

February 2021

Hello Family, Friends, and Ministry Partners,

I pray that this quarterly update finds each of you well and staying strong, firm, and steadfast! A lot has happened since my initial announcement about pursuing full-time missions with TWR. Allow me to provide a few updates:

- I officially completed my graduate coursework on November 8th and now have a Master of Arts in Strategic Communication and Leadership from Spring Arbor University. It feels great to have that completed!
- The same day that my final project was due, I took a trip to the emergency room... don't worry, I'm fine! However, please pray for some pesky health issues for which I'm in the process of seeking treatment.
- Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's came and went very quickly. While these holidays were certainly different in 2020, I'm grateful to have had the chance to fellowship with family and friends. And, to have rest over my Christmas break!
- By God's grace I'm nearly 60% funded! The body of Christ has been incredibly generous, and I'm humbled by the amount of people who are partnering with me in ministry at TWR. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

My hope is to be fully funded by early April so I can make my transition to Cary in time to help with the summer internship program. Please continue to pray for God's provision and for my perseverance. This process is teaching me so much about being content in the waiting and trusting in God's perfect timing. Psalm 33:20-22 reminds me: "Our soul waits for the Lord; he is our help and our shield. For our heart is glad in him because we trust in his holy name. Let your steadfast love, O Lord, be upon us, even as we hope in you."

Please continue to pray for the ministry of TWR! The gospel is being proclaimed through radio and digital media all over the world and the stories continuously pour in about Christ's saving grace. "During this time of pandemic, a lot of people I know have had losses. But for me it became a time of salvation. I've been listening to your programs for one year. At the beginning it was like collecting information for me, but in time something has started to change my heart. After I lost a friend because of COVID-19, I started to ask more questions about the future and about life after death. I didn't find any answer that covered my fear during this time. But after listening to your programs with a new attitude, I felt freedom in my heart and decided to give my heart to Christ. Now I know what will happen to me, even if I die." – A 25-year-old Thru the Bible listener in Turkey

Thank you again for your prayers, encouragement, and support. May God be glorified!

Soli Deo Gloria,
