

Speaking Hope to the World

Kelly Cunningham

January 2019

Dear Friends and Family,

I am excited to share with you how God has been working in my life over the last several months. Many of you know my heart for missions and evangelism and my involvement in global missions over the last many years. It's amazing to me to realize it has been 20 years since serving in Ukraine as a short-term missionary. Now through the prompting of the Lord and His gracious provision, I have the opportunity to serve again in the field---using the skills and experience learned during my career in business communications and marketing.

As I look back, it's easy to see how God has been preparing and equipping me for service with the global ministry of TWR (formerly Trans World Radio). Founded in 1952, TWR's purpose is to use various media platforms to proclaim the gospel and to disciple believers in over 230 languages in more than 190 countries throughout the world. The fruit of this ministry is evident by the thousands of responses from listeners around the world whose lives have been transformed by the gospel-centered content. You can learn more about TWR by visiting twr.org.

The specific opportunity for me to serve is in a marketing and development role as liaison to international churches across Europe and CAMENA (Central Asia, Middle East and North Africa). The TWR team in this region is located in Paphos, Cyprus, where I will be based. I look forward to spending time developing relationships with the English-speaking international churches across this region and with local TWR staff as I work to grow ministry awareness and partnership opportunities. I will also assist the regional director in developing our outreach and growth strategy.

For now, the main focus of my ministry preparation is to enlist a dedicated team of individuals like you, to partner with me through prayer, encouragement and finances. I welcome your prayers as I begin building my team, and look forward to being in touch with you to share more specifics. I will gladly meet with you for coffee, a meal, or after church, to share more about this exciting opportunity to serve.

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter and to celebrate with me how the Lord is working!

Gratefully,

Kelly Cunningham
