

NEWS from the Detwilers

Winter 2020

Troubling times and a new decade.

Iran, Iraq, rockets, drones, reprisals, crashes . . . The new year has started out a bit unsettling. But in devotions this morning, we were reading and being refreshed by the knowledge of the omnipotence of our great, Almighty God. All of the verses we read and the doctrines we refreshed in our hearts were but a fraction of the truth God's word provides us. And then I read this:

*"Come then, and with such loving teachableness
Let us take our seats beside this sea of Truth,
And strive with reverence to touch
The spray that sparkles on the shore."
Henry Law*

There is so much about our God to know and comprehend that we can merely grasp a mist or a spray of it in our humble finite minds. And we rest in this truth—God is in control.

Let's pray together for the will of God and for our leaders.

God bless you and have a blessed New Year!

We love you. We pray for you. We are joyfully representing the Lord on your behalf to a lost and dying world.

Curt and Carol

Traveling!

Curt is preparing for a busy first quarter. He has trips to West Africa and Guam. Both of these trips will be time-consuming and complex. We always appreciate your prayers for him when he travels and ask that you continue to remember his safety and health. I always ask the Lord to open his eyes and help him to see things he otherwise might miss. As the legendary architect Mies van der Rohe once said, "God is in the details." Please join me.

Deputation 2020

Some time this year we hope to be back up in the Northeast to visit supporters and some of our supporting churches. We are working on the details and will certainly let you know when things are more definite. We always look forward to seeing many of our friends that pray for us and give so generously. Would you pray with us for the details to come together and for us to present clearly the vast ministry of TWR around the world?

Curt and his "little" girl!

We had a wonderful Christmas in Dallas with the kids and little Kyla. Ray and Lindsay are anticipating the arrival of a little brother some time in May. So it looks like we will have another Dallas trip to look forward to!
