New Beginnings!!!

After “gallons and gallons” of delays... we are finally moving back into our home—and office!

By the time you read this letter, (we hope) our family will be settling in our newly rebuilt home—and I will be settling in my newly rebuilt office.

Thank you so much for all of you who have prayed for us.

It’s All About the Listeners (and TWR360 Users)

“I don't have a family, so I usually don't listen to this program. God, however, through the Holy Spirit has been convicting me since 5:30a.m. of everything you said today. I'm done fighting Him and crying out to Him at the same time. Your program sealed the coffin on my struggle and opened the door to regaining my freedom in Christ. I will be getting your book. Thank you for being there today!”

- Marlene (A TWR360 user responding to a program from Family Life Today)

Media Development Updates

- The Media Development and Services Team had to move offices twice in August and September in order to accommodate all the moving pieces with reconstruction in the Cary Office, as a result of the fire. The past year of displacement at home and work has been pretty tough—so glad it’s done!
- Jesus Film Audio is to be broadcast on hundreds of transmitters around the world during December 2018. I am working with the Global Media Services (GMS) Team on the broadcast logistics and audience engagement strategy. Please pray that the Lord will go before these broadcasts and open hearts!
- I’m working with several departments to help set up project workflows and implement better operational efficiencies on our teams. Pray for wisdom.

Rock You Like a Hurricane!

The Carolina Hurricanes are the NHL Team here in NC—and they always play that old 80’s rock song at their games... however, it doesn’t seem as cool when you’re staring down a Category 4 hurricane (Florence) as the eye is headed straight towards Raleigh, NC. Pray for safety and protection.

At the time of this writing, we are scheduled to have the movers get our stuff into our new home... at the same time Hurricane Florence makes landfall in the Raleigh area. Due to the hurricane, we have experienced additional delays with finalizing the reconstruction... so we’re starting to run into permitting issues... Regardless of what happens, we know God will be present in all the details as we trust Him. Thanks for praying!

Zeke's Corner

Little Zeke is getting bigger every day. It's amazing to me the amount of energy that he has.

He loves to run, wrestle, climb, throw, catch, and do anything that's active. If you pick him up, his little legs just start running in the air! He and Ben catch frogs, build forts, and get along really well (mostly).

Please pray for Zeke's safety in his everyday life—and that he will come to know and understand the Gospel at an early age. Thanks for your prayers!

Adventures with Benjamin—A.K.A. "Benventures"

Benjamin is learning so many new things and he's really growing up fast. He is entering the student ministry at our church—and really starting to dive into God's Word on his own.

Please pray for him as he continues growing in his walk with God—and as he navigates life and makes new friends as we move back to our neighborhood.

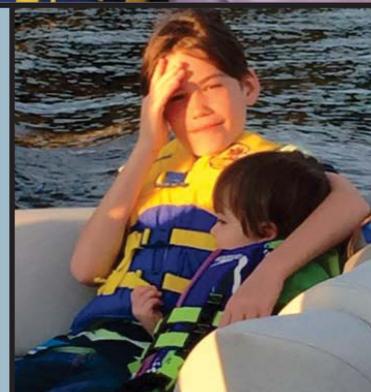

My sweet boys!

We're on a boat!

Prayer Requests—Please Pray

- ◆ Housing... Mr. Blandings Builds His Dream House (the 1948 film with Cary Grant and Myrna Loy) is a movie that is the closest thing we can think of that mirrors the house-related issues we have encountered over the past several months. With the hurricane now affecting aspects of the move (too many details to go over here), we'll just be glad if we can actually live in the house in early October! Please continue praying for us during this transition. We're almost there!
- ◆ Pray for God's continued protection and blessing on our marriage and family—with all the upcoming transition especially.
- ◆ The Footsteps Media Ministries Conference is now less than a year away—so I am needing wisdom and endurance as I hit full stride in the planning stages for this event. Please pray! Thanks!
- ◆ Pray for the Lord to go before me in meetings with potential cooperating media ministries to open doors for new partnerships.
- ◆ There are several projects that I am working on over the coming months. Please pray for the wisdom to proceed—and that the Lord will direct my steps on every aspect as we move forward.

Just goofing around!

Serving Him,

Brandon, Laura, Benjamin, and Ezekiel Neal
