It's All About the Listeners (and TWR360 Users)

"I was very confused and when I didn't know what to do, you were there. You enlightened and guided me. When I was deciding to abort my baby, you stopped me and encouraged me not to pursue my plan. You said, 'Your baby is a precious living gift from God.' so I named her Precious Gift. You are right and I can say that my daughter is the most precious treasure I have now."

- Lorena Mae (A listener in the Philippines, from "In Touch" in the Ilocano language)

Media Development Updates

- TWR had a fire on December 22nd, which has caused significant disruption for those of us serving in the Cary, NC Office. Praise the Lord that no one was hurt—and the building is being cleaned and parts of it rebuilt. No TWR broadcasts were interrupted due to the fire. We are very grateful to God for His protection! The cause of the fire is under investigation.
- Even with all the excitement, our Media Development & Services Team has continued moving projects forward. We had GMS (Global Media Services) meetings in February and then proceeded with the NRB (National Religious Broadcasters) convention. Please pray for our team as we continue being flexible during all the office renovations.

Can We Pray For You?

We greatly appreciate all of you who pray for our family and team.

We'd love to pray for you too—that God will continually draw you closer to Himself and that His presence will be felt in your life.

If you have any prayer requests, then please email me. Our family and our team will pray for you.

Exciting Ministry Opportunities—and a Global Scope

I love getting to serve in Global Media Services where I am involved in media ministry on every continent every day!

Right now, I'm working on projects in Asia, Africa, Europe, and Latin America. There is literally not a minute that goes by that a TWR broadcast is not going on somewhere in the world. Plus, there are more than 100 people on TWR360 at every moment of the day... 24/7.

Thank you to all of you who lift our family—and our team—up in prayer. We desperately need God to watch over us, work in us and through us. We appreciate each of you who support us through prayer and finances.

Zeke's Corner

Zeke turned 2 years old on February 11th. He talks... all... the... time... All joking aside, our home rarely has a dull moment with these boys living there!

Funny enough, the only times when it's really quiet are the times that I get concerned. Just the other day, I heard some silence... only to discover that Zeke had used a chair to climb up onto the counter and eat a donut that I was saving for later. Oh well... I guess I didn't need it anyway!

Adventures with Benjamin—A.K.A. "Benventures"

Benjamin is constantly learning and growing as he is growing up into quite a nice young man. He is continually asking questions and learning all kinds of new things! He has made friends with the neighborhood kids and they play outside a lot!

Ben and Zeke play together well (most of the time) and Benjamin really is growing in his walk with the Lord. I love seeing him memorize Scripture, learn God's Word, and grow in his faith and trust of God.

Prayer Requests—Please Pray

- ◆ The house situation is still "in process." At the time of this writing, we've been in "temporary housing" for 5 months so far... and reconstruction will likely take 3+ months. We have encountered significant issues within the insurance process and are dealing with those issues. Please pray for wisdom in this situation.
- ◆ In February, I had meetings with The Jesus Film Project in order for TWR to increase our partnership with them in spreading the Gospel around the world. Laura and the boys were able to come with me on that trip—and we took the boys to Legoland FL while in the area. They really had a great time!
- ◆ Pray for God's continued protection and blessing on our marriage and family—especially for rest, rejuvenation, and trusting God.
- ◆ Please continue to lift our family up in prayer as we continue walking through our housing situation. I sincerely hope that the July prayer letter announces that we're moving back into our home! But in the meantime, pray for our family to steward this trial wisely.
- ◆ Pray for the Lord to go before me in meetings with potential ministry partners—and for more people to answer God's call to serve in getting the Gospel to the ends of the earth.
