October 2019

. . . that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

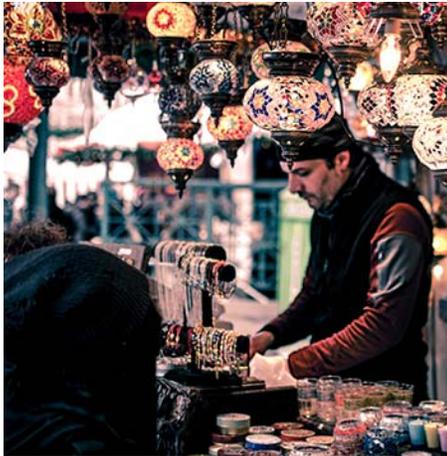

John 17:23

October Greetings!

It's always good to see people challenged by the gospel!

Challenged, Then Persuaded by Gospel Radio

Sometimes TWR listeners text-message our response teams to ask for more information or to tell about a family crisis. Other times, they write to argue that the Bible is wrong, that we should be silent. And then there are times when a hearty "Praise the Lord!" seems like the only appropriate reaction after talking with a caller.

A phone call from a 32-year-old Turkish man, we'll refer to him as Yusuf, was one of those times. Yusuf was at his office one day when the power went off, interrupting his work. He was miffed because he would have to stay for another shift if he couldn't finish his assignments.

He turned on the radio to raise his spirits and stumbled upon TWR's Turkish broadcast of In Touch.

"It was the first time I heard about Christianity, and I was very surprised that there is a radio station airing programs like this," Yusuf told us.

"What you said was like a challenge to me. And I have to admit that my first thoughts were, 'How do they dare make programs like this in a Muslim country?'"

He kept listening to TWR programming but wouldn't tell others because he was afraid of how they would react.

"Today I felt the love and grace of the Lord in my heart, and that's why I call you," Yusuf said. "I want to pray the sinner's prayer."

"Praise the Lord," you can almost hear the response team shouting.
