

Until the Whole World Hears

The Becker Family M&M's - November 2018 Update

COMPASS/CHIPS

It sounds a bit like a hike in the wilderness with some take-along snacks, but it isn't. COMPASS is a missionary pre-departure, month-long training course at Mission Training International (MTI) in Colorado Springs, CO. COMPASS (for the adults) and the CHIPS program (for the children) have parallel and age-specific objectives to see that "cross-cultural messengers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ experience effectiveness, endurance and personal vitality." We've heard time and again how this all-family course will change our lives and that of the Beckerlings. Melinda thinks it is because she will be relieved of her chef-ly chores for the entirety of our MTI tenure, though our peers have assured us it is an invigorating and spiritual (as well as culinary) journey.

Check Out our support progress (left)! We have 87% of our monthly giving commitments in place!! Could our Lord be challenging you to "adopt" one of the towers by pledging to ongoing/monthly giving? When each tower has been checked off (or the equivalent), we move to Guam. If you have given a one-time gift in the past, would you consider pledging to give it again each year? Annual gifts can be applied across the year and counted toward our support goal. Please contact Mitch or Melinda for details (or call TWR directly at 800-456-7897).

So...What's the PLAN?

For all the times we have waited on Navy orders, we never wondered when we would go, only WHERE we would end up. For this set of "orders," the where is in place (KTWR Guam), but the when is still a mystery to us. We are praying that we will be able to leave Virginia at the end of December for an early January COMPASS date. That trajectory, assuming we are 100% funded, would put the Becker's arrival on Guam in mid-February. OK...but what does the Becker mass-exodus look like? Here are the details:

- Receive news that 100% of our support has been pledged by people excited about spreading the gospel to millions (that will be a LOUD Becker event =).
- Navy packout/shipment of goods to Guam (YES, a NAVY move!)
- Mitch turns in his notice to leave his job at AECOM
- Put our King George house on the market (Prayers, please, for a quick sale!)
- Drive from VA to Colorado (Are you "on the way" and wanting nine visitors?)
- Visit Colorado family, friends and supporters (how fabulous!!)
- Spend one month in COMPASS training at MTI (learn, rest, worship, eat)
- Drive to California to visit Melinda's family; ship our large van to Guam
- Board a FREE MAC (military) flight out of Travis Air Force Base to Hawaii
- Wait in Hawaii for a military flight to Guam (and enjoy the beach?)
- Arrive on Guam (and begin house hunting....after a nap!)

HOW to Get A Free Navy Move

(When You Aren't In the Navy)

This is one of our favorite miracles to date...receiving news that our move to Guam will be paid for by the US Navy. Yes, Mitch retired from the military three years ago, but we were not permitted our final move entitlement at that time. Why? It is because the distance to our new residence was four miles short of the 50 mile requirement. We are now cheerfully redeeming the full pack out, move and storage entitlement for this transcontinental trek to Guam. PTL!!
