Happy 2016 to you!

Since our last prayer letter, we have had two grandsons born to us, Josiah Ivan Christofi in New Jersey and Ivan Alexander Goggans in North Carolina.

Josiah Ivan Christofi

Ivan (Vanya) Alexander Goggans

Josiah was born on October 13th to Allison and Joel. Vanya was born on November 26th (Thanksgiving Day) to Melanie and Andrew. They both join three siblings, all of whom are quite proud and happy with their little brothers. They both are doing well and growing. Already, they both have more hair on the top of their heads than their “Dedko” has.

Some extended family members have had major medical concerns, which have caused us to be much in prayer and care for. Our loving and gracious God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ has been so good to us and them in His loving watch care. Then again, God is good all the time.

Much has been happening around the world in various TWR projects and ministries. More and more churches and individual Christians are realizing the powerful tool that TWR360 offers them in reaching not just across the globe but across the fence or street where they dwell. More and more responses are coming in from many countries and in many languages, encouraging us to continue in the numerous ministries, both in the digital world and through broadcasts. TWR360 is now in 42 languages and 108 ministries. Even while one form of ministry winds down in Europe, another form of ministry begins in the US. Reports have come in to us from Nepal and other lands of how crisis broadcasts are ministering to people caught unprepared for natural disasters or are affected by terrorist atrocities. Programs that urge and help facilitate reconciliation and healing are being listened to and making a difference. The Gospel is being proclaimed in the cities and in the rural lands in the heart languages of the people. False religions are being shown to be not proclaiming the Truth as the Truth goes forth in power via the Internet and over the airwaves, as listeners have been communicating to us. Rebel forces are “complaining” that they keep losing soldiers to our broadcasts as these soldiers become Christians. Isolated believers are being encouraged, taught, strengthened and disciplined.

In all these things, you have had a part in helping us have a part; thank you. Thank you for your various means of support, including praying about a replacement car, with which we now have been blessed. While we are still undersupported, we are mindful of the sacrificial support of finances and time given for us to continue serving with TWR in the Cary office. Our prayer for you is that God would continue to bless you as you use for Him what He has graciously given you.

Please be praying that more people would be told about the websites and transmissions or discover them themselves.

Serving our Lord with you,

Jim and Roberta Hill
