Dear friends,

I want to talk about blessings. I am sitting at home with a cold. In today's climate, that means it is best to stay at home rather than go to work or church without first making sure it is just a cold and cough. It really highlights some blessings for me because I realized that I've not been sick with anything since the start of COVID! What a blessing that has been! Also, since I've told a few friends that I'm home sick, I've been offered that someone bring me groceries, I've been prayed for, and another brave friend came, without asking, with a very large container of chicken noodle soup! Friends are very great to have and are a blessing!

In the past couple of months, I've seen hardships and blessings both. Wherever a hardship has been, people have prayed and blessings have come. One example is how I needed clear direction in when to put the house on the market. I struggled to get work done around the house and thought to take advantage of the local housing market and sell the house, but ran out of warm weather. It's a blessing to have my own house for the winter though. Several people were praying with me about direction in this. I'm in a good spot now and will be able to get the house ready for sale in the spring, again, if that is God's Will. The importance of praying for all decisions and in all troubles cannot be overstated!

I am just over 47% of my financial support need to leave and relocate on Bonaire and join the team who work diligently to keep the broadcast ministry going. They are looking forward to my arrival as I am still hoping that the day will come in spring. By then, I will need to raise the remainder of my support. I anticipate needing to travel some in order to achieve that goal and will need your prayers regarding which churches to approach. Using pastoral connections, I will go where God leads to the churches and people He has in mind for this ministry. He is faithful to provide!

Speaking Hope to the World

Things To Pray About:

My ministry partnership development: Raising support in prayer and finances. I hope to join the team quickly.

The team in Bonaire: For continued health and safety for them and their families and supporters.

RTM Colombia: For expansion of the ministry in the Sierra Nevada region. Specifically through distribution of radios so that the Bonaire broadcasts can be heard. AM radios are scarce in this region.

Sandra Swanson (Bonaire missionary): Praise The Lord! Brad and Sandra are heading back to Bonaire (will be there by the time this is read) after a long stay in the US having had a device implanted to control seizures.

My Vision: I serve God with TWR by supporting systems for broadcasting His truth and hope to listeners in their heart language.

Listener's Story Corner

"I write to you from Cuba. I really like your program. I listen to it every night, as does my grandfather in Santo Domingo, and we've both been greatly blessed by the topics you cover. Every night you really make us reflect on the Word of God. Keep broadcasting like this." - Cuban Listener

"Dear brothers, God bless you infinitely, and thank you for such a noble task of teaching, tirelessly and perseveringly, the most important message humanity needs - the holy Word of God. In each study there is a new learning that apart from edifying us, provides us with solid and faithful arguments to continue expanding the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ. I listen to you on Radio Transmundial at 800 Khz. in Morón, Venezuela. Blessings!" - A listener of the broadcasts from Bonaire in Venezuela

"It is a pleasure to listen to you on the radio with your program El Faro de Redención. I have been a pastor for more than 30 years in this beloved island of Cuba. I am one of the Christians who lived through the difficult years, when many said that in the year 2000 there would be no Christians in Cuba. In those years Radio Trans Mundial was a source of nutrition for our faith. What joy it is today to hear programs aimed at Cuba and with preachers, worshippers and testimonies from this beautiful island! Every night, my wife and I listen while we work in the office. Your teachings are very good. I encourage you to keep going. God bless you richly." - Pastor Rodolfo
