A lot has happened since the last time we shared an update as the world has certainly experienced some heartbreak. Almost all of us faced some very real moments where we had to examine the priorities in our life. Many have wondered, has this changed our plans to serve with TWR on Guam? No! In fact, we feel more of a desire to GO than ever before. The love of Christ needs to be interjected into our broken world to provide hope. And how do we get that message of hope out? Through the TWR radio waves!

“The Word of God has touched my heart... Tears come to my eyes whenever I listen to your program. Your program reminds me the love God has for me. That love increases every time when I listen.”

— a listener in Sri Lanka

“This is real love-not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent his son as a sacrifice to take away our sins.”- 1 John 4:10. With the brokenness and heartbreak these past few months, people need to know they are loved! Their lives matter!

We are moving forward. However, the preparation and planning that must take place certainly has adapted. We completed some of our training that had to be transitioned to a virtual format, while other training simply had to be pushed back to a later date. We also started building our ministry partnership team. This is a group of people who want to come alongside us to pray, encourage, and financially invest in building God’s Kingdom together. This team is so vital, as it gives us longevity on the field and the capability to further the gospel. Once this team is fully established, we will head to Guam.

So what’s next for our family? We will continue to speak with family, friends, and churches throughout the summer. If we have spoken to you already, thank you! And if you haven’t heard from us yet, please know we haven’t forgotten; we want everyone to have an opportunity to learn more about our ministry and a chance to join our team if they feel led.

Our family will also be heading to Colorado in October for a month-long cross-cultural training. We still have many decisions to make but all of these will be determined with much prayer and consideration. If you have any questions or would like to have a conversation, we would love to hear from you. Feel free to call, text, or email and check out our staff page: twr.org/custer.

Many Blessings,

Cody, Chelesse, Cecilya, Chamberlyn, Cora, & Camrie Custer
